

Career Resources

To keep you at the forefront of your events career, here are some resources that will help you stay on the cutting edge.

Education and Networking

See the list of industry associations for a local chapter and browse opportunities to learn, network, and even gain event experience. Some ways to connect:

- Attend an association meeting and, when comfortable, volunteer for a committee
- Seek day-of employment at some of their events
- Attend events and seek out mentors in your field of choice (e.g. weddings, sporting events)
- Attend educational sessions
