

LEED Certification

Buildings can be certified LEED Certified, Silver, Gold or Platinum. These buildings must be constructed, maintained and operated in a sustainable, or resource efficient, way. Select venues who've achieved this certification are listed below.

Double Platinum

Vancouver Convention Centre (West), Vancouver, Canada

Platinum

David L. Lawrence Convention Center, Pittsburgh
Oregon Convention Center, Portland

Gold

Aria Convention Center and Showroom, Las Vegas
Austin Convention Center, Texas
Broward County Convention Center, Fort Lauderdale
Cleveland Medical Mart Convention Center, Ohio
Colorado Convention Center, Denver
Courtyard Las Vegas Convention Center
Halifax Convention Centre, Nova Scotia, Canada
International Convention Centre, Sydney Australia
Las Cruces Convention Center, New Mexico
Los Angeles Convention Center
Marriott Las Vegas Convention Center
Monona Terrace Convention Center, Madison, Wisconsin
Moscone Convention Center, San Francisco
Orange County Convention Center, Orlando
Pasadena Convention Center, California
Pennsylvania Convention Center, Philadelphia
Qatar National Convention Centre, Qatar
San Diego Convention Center
Sands Expo and Congress Center, Las Vegas
Savannah International Trade & Convention Center, Georgia
Shaw Centre, Ottawa, Canada
Virginia Beach Convention Center, Virginia

Silver

Boston Convention and Exhibition Center
City of Knoxville Convention Center, Tennessee
Dallas Convention Center
George R. Brown Convention Center, Houston
Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center Expansion, San Antonio
Jacob Javits Convention Center, New York City
Jekyll Island Convention Center, Georgia
Kansas City Convention Center Grand Ballroom, Missouri
Phoenix Convention Center
Raleigh Convention Center, North Carolina
RBC Convention Centre, Winnipeg, Canada
Salem Convention Center, Oregon
San Jose Convention Center Expansion, California
Scotiabank Convention and Civic Centre, Niagara Falls, Canada
Sharonville Convention Center Expansion, Cincinnati
Songdo Convensia, Korea
Spokane Convention Center Expansion, Washington
Washington State Convention Center, Seattle
Wilmington Convention Center, North Carolina